

I find it difficult to believe that the our own government "for the people, by the people" would even consider weakaning this law. In addition it is amazing that this is an issue. I pay my phone bill, so there is no free speach here. I pay the fucking bill. Replace fucking with somthing else, but I point out the here, free speach should not be considred, unless someone wants to pay my phone bill.